Young People's Courses 2012

Inspiration, training, enrichment, enjoyment

Young People's Courses

The RSCM is well-known for its courses for young people, incorporating the ever-popular ingredients of a broad range of choral repertoire, vocal development, fun and friendship. These courses are an ideal complement to the Voice for Life programme, and build upon the training that choristers receive in their own choirs.

Spring Course at Sedbergh School, Cumbria

Tuesday 10th - Friday 13th April

Director: Gordon Appleton

Price: £255 (£295 non-members)

This course offers the popular combination of inspirational music-making and a great holiday. Gordon Appleton, experienced RSCM Course Director, leads a team of excellent staff, who provide separate tutorials for boys, girls and young altos, tenors and basses. The teaching is designed to develop individual voices within the context of learning choral music for daily services. Each house contributes its own music to the services as well as having the experience of singing in the massed choir.

Sedbergh School was a new location last year, and was such a success that we are delighted to return. The small town of Sedbergh is in the north-west of the Yorkshire Dales National Park, and has a large school chapel and lovely parish church where the choir will sing. There will be time to enjoy the school's excellent sports facilities and the surrounding area.

This course is designed for children and young people aged 10 to 17 years.

"A fantastic, inspirational and fun week filled with great music"

A small number of bursaries are available for both courses. Contact the Education Administrator on 01722 424843 or education@rscm.com or visit www.rscm.com/courses.

Summer Course at Kingswood School, Bath

Monday 20th - Sunday 26th August

Director: Geoff Weaver

Price: £375 (£440 non-members)

Young people love returning to this course year after year. Kingswood School stands above the beautiful city of Bath, with a wonderful view towards Bath Abbey. Under the inspirational leadership of Geoff Weaver, an experienced team of tutors provides wide-ranging musical training, including care and development of the voice. Much of the teaching will be helpful to those following the Voice for Life training scheme, especially those preparing for awards. There will also be workshops giving a chance to try some new skills.

Daily services are held in Kingswood Chapel, and at the weekend the massed choir sings in Bath Abbey - always an exciting experience. A wide range of music, set within diverse liturgies, provides musical and spiritual enrichment.

Kingswood School has excellent facilities, and there are also chances to explore the historic city of Bath. Accommodation is in small dormitories, and there is a team of pastoral staff on hand.

This course is designed for children and young people aged from 10 to 24 years.

The RSCM offers two organ scholarships for this course, giving opportunities for young organists to work with the course organist and gain experience accompanying the singers. Contact the Education Administrator on 01722 424843 or education@rscm.com or visit www.rscm.com/courses.
