Young People's Courses

The RSCM is well-known for its courses for young people, incorporating the ever-popular ingredients of a broad range of choral repertoire, vocal development, fun and friendship. These courses are an ideal complement to the Voice for Life programme, and build upon the training that choristers receive in their own choirs.

Spring Course at Sneaton Castle Centre, Whitby

Tuesday 14 - Friday 17 April 2009

Director: Gordon Appleton

Price: £225 (£270 non-members)

This course during Easter Week offers the popular combination of inspirational music-making and a great holiday. Gordon Appleton, experienced RSCM Course Director, leads a team of excellent staff, who provide separate tutorials for boys, girls and young altos, tenors and basses. The teaching is designed to develop individual voices within the context of learning choral music for daily services. Each house contributes its own music to the services as well as having the experience of singing in the massed choir.

The course returns this year to Sneaton Castle Centre, in the picturesque seaside town of Whitby in Yorkshire. There will be chances to sing in the Sneaton Chapel and local churches, and time to explore the town.

This course is designed for children and young people aged 10 to 17 years.

"I thought that the course definitely improved my singing and taught me a lot."

A small number of bursaries are available for these courses. The RSCM also offers two organ scholarships for the summer course in Bath. Contact the Education Administrator on 01722 424843 or education@rscm.com or visit www.rscm.com/courses.

Summer Course at Kingswood School, Bath

Monday 17 - Sunday 23 August 2009

Director: Geoff Weaver

Price: £335 (£400 non-members)

Young people love returning to this course year after year, to enjoy music and friendship in the beautiful city of Bath. Kingswood School stands above the city, with a wonderful view towards Bath Abbey, where the participants sing several times during the week. Under the inspirational leadership of course director Geoff Weaver, an experienced and gifted team of tutors provide a wide-ranging musical training, including care and development of the voice. Much of the teaching will be helpful to those who are following the Voice for Life training scheme, especially those preparing for awards.

Daily services are held in Kingswood Chapel, and at the weekend the massed choir sings in Bath Abbey - always a thrilling experience. A wide range of music, set within exciting liturgies, provides musical and spiritual enrichment.

Kingswood School has excellent facilities for the course participants to enjoy, and there are chances to explore the historic city of Bath. Accommodation is in small dormitories, and there is an experienced team of pastoral staff in each House.

This course is designed for children and young people aged from 10 to 24 years.

"We feel that we have grown as singers"
